THEDA BARA in La Belle Russe

Theda Bara The Wicked Sister

The most extraordinary dual role in the history of cinematography.

La Belle Russe is a notorious courtesan.

Her sister, Fleurette, the ballet dancer, suffers all for the sake of her child, the heir apparent to Deepdean castle and Sackton title.

Yet both La Belle Russe and Fleurette are Theda Bara.

La Belle Russe, by her machinations, plans to foist herself upon an aristocratic family.

She even tries to brazen the matter out when confronted by her sister.

The conflict between the good sister and the wicked sister is one of the most powerful ever conceived by playwright.

Yet both sisters are Theda Bara.

It will positively be the most talked of role ever presented on the screen.
